CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

Goal

The purpose of the awards is to recognize the work of graduate students regarding knowledge translation (KT) in public health in Canada.

Award

Up to three awards will be given annually at the CPHA Annual Conference. Travel, accommodation and registration fees will be covered up to a maximum of $1,500.

Eligibility

The award is open to students who are currently enrolled in a graduate program (full or part-time) in a Canadian academic institution, in a discipline relevant to public health OR students who graduated from a post-secondary institution in the last 12 months.

Application Guidelines

Submit the following information:

1. Completed application form
2. Summary that describes how your academic work (course work, academic papers and/or thesis) is developing, implementing and/or evaluating knowledge translation strategies in public health. [2 page maximum, 1" margins, minimum 11 point font]
3. Letter of support from your faculty or academic supervisor that includes confirmation of your current program of study (or program attendance within the past 12 months) and academic institution.

Submission & Deadline

Please return the completed application form and supporting documentation by April 2, 2010 to:

Canadian Public Health Association Awards Committee
400-1565 Carling Avenue, Ottawa, ON K1Z 8R1
conference@cpha.ca Fax: 613-725-9826

Selection Process

Applications will be reviewed and scored according to the following criteria:

- relevance to knowledge translation in public health
- creativity/innovation shown in the project
- scholarliness of the project
- potential impact of the project
- quality and degree of support of academic supervisor

Preference will be given to students who are implementing and evaluating the knowledge translation strategy with public health staff, managers or policy-makers.

An NCCPH subcommittee will review and score the applications and make recommendations to the NCCPH Leads for approval.
